Symphony Park Opens to Rave Reviews

Hundreds Attend the Opening of Two New Showhomes in Montgomery County's Fastest-Selling Million Dollar Community

February 15, 2012 – North Bethesda, MD – Nearly 500 guests flocked to North Bethesda on Saturday, February 11th to celebrate the Grand Opening of two brand new showhomes at Symphony Park at Strathmore. Through its European-inspired landscaping and cobblestone entry, the community of exquisite Brownstones adjoining the grounds of The Music Center at Strathmore, delivers an unprecedented combination of culture and elegance. Homes at Symphony Park, built by Michael Harris Homes, are priced from the upper $900's to $1.7million.

Invited guests to the event were greeted by the lively sounds of a jazz quartet from Strathmore's Artists-In-Residence program. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres were graciously served up by Design Cuisine's superior chefs. The expansive kitchen in the Westminster showhome served as the heart of the party as visitors flowed in and around the large, marble-topped center island, admiring the Wolf[®] and Sub-Zero[®] appliances and Brookhaven by Wood-Mode[®] cabinetry. On the upper level, guests were in awe of the luxurious master suite, particularly the tile work, and spectacular fixtures and tub by renowned Waterworks[™], in the master bath. The impeccable attention to detail from the award-winning teams at Jodi Macklin Interior Design and Whittington Design Studio enhanced the exquisite architecture of the homes and kept visitors wowed throughout the event. Guests were also treated to delectable desserts, a wine tasting by Cork & Fork of Bethesda Row and a delightful string trio as they toured the cozy and inviting Chelsea showhome.

With 38 sales to date, Symphony Park at Strathmore is an extraordinary community that is poised for national acclaim. Symphony Park's Sales Gallery is located in the Westminster showhome and is open daily from 11 am to 5 pm.
